

Freedom of Information request 65-22

Request

Could you please share the number of reports received on malfunctioning medical equipment in hospitals in your health board and:

1. If you could break it down by large medical equipment (such as Electrocardiograph machine, monitors, ventilators) and smaller equipment
2. Specify how long it took to replace or fix malfunctioning equipment.

Response

In 2020, 2021 and 2022 so far there have been 5 reports of malfunctioning medical equipment at NHS Borders, of these 3 were large medical equipment and 2 were small medical equipment.

The time taken to repair the equipment is as follows:

- Report 1 – 1 hour
- Report 2 – 2 hours
- Report 3 – 30 minutes
- Report 4 – 2 hours
- Report 5 – 30 minutes

If you are not satisfied with the way your request has been handled or the decision given, you may ask NHS Borders to review its actions and the decision. If you would like to request a review please apply in writing to, Freedom of Information Review, NHS Borders, Room 2EC3, Education Centre, Borders General Hospital, Melrose, TD6 9BS or foi.enquiries@borders.scot.nhs.uk.

The request for a review should include your name and address for correspondence, the request for information to which the request relates and the issue which you wish to be reviewed. Please state the reference number 65-22 on this request. Your request should be made within 40 working days from receipt of this letter.

If following this review, you remain dissatisfied with the outcome, you may appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner and request an investigation of your complaint. Your request to the Scottish Information Commissioner should be in writing (or other permanent form), stating your name and an address for correspondence. You should provide the details of the request and your reasons for dissatisfaction with both the original response by NHS Borders and your reasons for dissatisfaction with the outcome of the internal review. Your application for an investigation by the Scottish Information Commissioner must be made within six months of your receipt of the response with which you are dissatisfied. The address for the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner is, Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife.
