

Freedom of Information request 523-22

Request

1. All reasons, recognised by the NHS health board, why patients are removed from or leave a waiting list.
2. The number of patients who have left an NHS waiting list in the last five years without receiving the operation or treatment for which they were on the waiting list in the first place.

Please provide the number of people as well as a breakdown of the reason why the patients left the list as well as the type of waiting list they left.

If possible, also include in breakdown the specialty of the waiting list.
