

Freedom of Information request 570-23

Request

1. Since its inception in June 2018, how many of your employees have completed 'Practice Level 1' of NHS Education for Scotland's National Trauma Training Programme?
2. How many of those employees have completed the training in the last 12 months (July 2022 to July 2023)?
3. Is Practice Level 1 of NHS Education for Scotland's National Trauma Training Programme a mandatory training requirement for all employees?

Response

1. The training and resources for Practice Level 1 of the NHS Education for Scotland's National Trauma Training Programme include animations and self-directed workshops. These resources are accessed via the NES NTTP webpage and NHS Borders do not hold local information about learners. Therefore, this information is not held, as defined in Section 17, Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.
2. This information is not held, as defined in Section 17, Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.
3. NHS Borders is in discussions to include Practice Level 1 training within Corporate Induction across Health and Social Care; however, this is not currently in place.

If you are not satisfied with the way your request has been handled or the decision given, you may ask NHS Borders to review its actions and the decision. If you would like to request a review please apply in writing to, Freedom of Information Review, NHS Borders, Room 2EC3, Education Centre, Borders General Hospital, Melrose, TD6 9BS or foi.enquiries@borders.scot.nhs.uk.

The request for a review should include your name and address for correspondence, the request for information to which the request relates and the issue which you wish to be reviewed. Please state the reference number 570-23 on this request. Your request should be made within 40 working days from receipt of this letter.

If following this review, you remain dissatisfied with the outcome, you may appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner and request an investigation of your complaint. Your request to the Scottish Information Commissioner should be in writing (or other permanent form), stating your name and an address for correspondence. You should provide the details of the request and your reasons for dissatisfaction with both the original response by NHS Borders and your reasons for dissatisfaction with the outcome of the internal review. Your application for an investigation by the Scottish Information Commissioner must be made within six months of your receipt of the response with which you are dissatisfied. The address for the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner is, Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife.
