

25 September 2023

Freedom of Information request 655-23

Request

To ask health boards what is the current waiting time for a new patient seeking an appointment for an Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) diagnosis

Response

NHS Borders electronic recording system does not record the reason for a referral; therefore, this information is not held, as defined in Section 17, Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

Please note, that if a patient is seeking an appointment for an Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder diagnosis within Mental Health Adult Services, they would be referred by their GP and would need to meet the criteria for secondary care which means they need to have an underlying comorbidity. The time that patients wait for assessment varies depending on risk of referral.

If you are not satisfied with the way your request has been handled or the decision given, you may ask NHS Borders to review its actions and the decision. If you would like to request a review please apply in writing to, Freedom of Information Review, NHS Borders, Room 2EC3, Education Centre, Borders General Hospital, Melrose, TD6 9BS or foi.enquiries@borders.scot.nhs.uk.

The request for a review should include your name and address for correspondence, the request for information to which the request relates and the issue which you wish to be reviewed. Please state the reference number 655-23 on this request. Your request should be made within 40 working days from receipt of this letter.

If following this review, you remain dissatisfied with the outcome, you may appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner and request an investigation of your complaint. Your request to the Scottish Information Commissioner should be in writing (or other permanent form), stating your name and an address for correspondence. You should provide the details of the request and your reasons for dissatisfaction with both the original response by NHS Borders and your reasons for dissatisfaction with the outcome of the internal review. Your application for an investigation by the Scottish Information Commissioner must be made within six months of your receipt of the response with which you are dissatisfied. The address for the Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner is, Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife.