Children &
Teenagers 12.5

This illustrated book explains death to children through the story of Badger.

The book explores some of the feelings of a person who is dying (Badger) and also the sadness of his friends when he dies.

The story then focuses on how Badger's friends remember the things he gave or taught them, which gradually helps them to remember him with joy.

The book is a sensitive book for children. 25 pages

The following titles are available for young children:

The Huge bag of Worries (explores some worries children might have through the story of Jenny)

Teenie Weenie in a too big world (for anxious and fearful children)

Willy and the Wobbly house (for anxious and obsessional children)

Don't Rant and Rave on Wednesdays! (Anger management for children 4-8 years)
